Camp Program Opportunities

Students receive hands on training with professional actors, designers and teachers. Classes and workshops include, but are not limited to, study of selected works of Shakespeare's canon, scansion, text analysis, acting and character development, movement for the stage, yoga, breathing, stage combat, vocal production, music, technical theatre, set design and construction.

Boarding students experience additional master classes, evening workshops, and rehearsals.

Learning, living, collaborating, and dining together and with teachers and artists of the festival in the bucolic environment of The Webb School campus in the heart of Bell Buckle, TN offers rich opportunities for students to form lasting friendships.
